

Department or Agency

URL

3. Choose and locate a specific federal agency or department of interest. Please note the department or agency as well and the URL above. Please describe the budget information available about the agency or department with specific details in your words.

4. What is your critique of the federal government's attempt to disclose budget information from an interested citizen's perspective?

Department or Agency _____

URL _____

Choose and locate a specific agency or department of interest in your state government. Note the department or agency as well as the URL above. Please respond to the following questions in your own words.

3. Describe the budget information available about that agency or department with specific details in your words.

4. What is your critique of the jurisdiction's attempt to disclose budget information from an interested citizen's perspective?

Department or Agency _____

URL _____

Choose and locate a specific agency or department of interest in your local county, borough, or parish government. Note the department or agency as well and the URL above. Please respond to the following questions in your own words.

3. Describe the budget information available about that agency or department with specific details in your words.

4. What is your critique of the jurisdiction's attempt to disclose budget information from an interested citizen's perspective?

Department or Agency _____

URL _____

Choose and locate a specific agency or department of interest in your city government. Note the department or agency as well and the URL above. Please respond to the following questions in your own words.

3. Describe the budget information available about that agency or department with specific details in your words.

4. What is your critique of the jurisdiction's attempt to disclose budget information from an interested citizen's perspective?

Debriefing Analysis and Discussion

Based on your review of the four government levels, compare and contrast what you found (a) most useful, and (b) most in need of improvement about the online budget information from an interested citizen's perspective.

If you assume that your supervisor assigned you to perform a detailed analysis of one of these jurisdiction's budgets, what additional information would you seek for each jurisdiction and why?

Federal Government

State Government

County, Borough, or Parish Government

City or Town Government

What do you see as the accessibility challenges and opportunities of internet-based governmental budgeting information from an interested citizen's perspective?