

Contents

- |          |  |            |
|----------|--|------------|
| 1 | Native Americans, Nonprofit Sector Development, and Community Challenges  | 1   |
|          | Raymond Foxworth   |            |
| 2 | Equity through Engagement, Entrepreneurship and Ethics Among India's Poorest  | 23  |
|          | Pradeepta Kumar Nayak  |            |
| 3 | African American Public Sector Agency, Resource Dependence in the Era of COVID-19   | 49  |
|          | Maurice O. Franklin  |            |
| 4 | Fighting for Equity in Bazilian Jiu-Jitsu: Roll the Same  | 69  |
|          | Seth J. Meyer  |            |
| 5 | To Be a Delegate, or Be a Trustee: That is the Question: The 2006 Gallaudet Protests and Ideal Types of Democratic Representation | 81  |
|          | Brendan Stern  |            |
| 6 | Equitable Neighborhood Development in Durham, North Carolina: The Case of Southside   | 105 |
|          | S. Nicole Diggs  |            |
| 7 | Chikumbuso, Transforming Vulnerability into Strength in Zambia  | 133 |
|          | Sara Compion and Bok Gyo Jeong   |            |
| 8 | The Motivation and the Dilemma of the First World Foreigners: Am I Helping or Hurting My Host Community                           | 153 |
|          | Aravinda U. Karunaratne  |            |
| 9 | Refocusing Resources on Vulnerable Populations  | 167 |
|          | Hugo Renderos  |            |

- 10 Lessons in Social Equity: Language and Labels Matter 193
Latoya M. Attis
- 11 Healing City Baltimore: An Antiracist Social Work
Pedagogical Approach 217
Melissa E. Buckley, Christa C. Gilliam, Malcolm Drewery,
Gary L. Jones, Jr., and Kesslyn Brade Stennis
- 12 Redefining Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at a Minority Serving Institution: A Case Study at Florida
International University 239
Agatha Swift Caraballo
- 13 Asian Americans with Limited English Proficiency (LEP) and COVID-19 Racism 263
Sangeun Lee
- 14 Maryland HBCU Coalition vs
State of Maryland: Implications for Social Work Education and Practice 289
Malcolm Drewery, Melissa E. Buckley, Gary L. Jones, Jr., Christa C. Gilliam, Anthony J. Hill, and Kesslyn Brade Stennis